Auditorium Grand Re-Opening Event Fact Sheet

DATE: Friday, October 17, 2014

TIME: 5 PM VIP Reception / 7 PM San Bernardino Symphony Orchestra

LOCATION: The San Bernardino Valley College Auditorium, on the campus of San Bernardino Valley College

DESCRIPTION:

Join us for the Grand Re-Opening of the SBVC Auditorium. The San Bernardino Symphony, with lead violinist William Hagen (just 21 years old) and Conductor Frank Paul Fetta will usher in a new era for the campus, as they perform pieces from Tchaikovsky and Dvořák. They will be joined by the choral scholars lead by Mattie Scully. An expanded stage, restored stained glass, and a reconditioned wood-paneled ceiling are just some of the recent enhancements to our historic auditorium. Lighting and technology upgrades bring the auditorium up to date, including viewing platforms for wheelchairs, and handicap accessible ramps and elevators. With seating for nearly 600, this historic building is ready to show San Bernardino and the Inland Empire exactly how to entertain! Tickets, program ads and sponsorships are available!

AUDIENCE: Nearly 600 SBVC students, alumni, friends, and music enthusiasts throughout the Inland Empire / Southern California.

TICKETS:

$10 for students, $25 general public (performance only), $100 VIP includes pre-event reception with hors d'oeuvres, wine, beer and non-alcoholic beverages.
